Liability for product use

Dear customers,

Please note that our company, Progetto Gomma s.r.l., is now making available for reference the table of technical specifications for our NBR rubber code MM019NN, which we use for manufacturing accessories for industrial vacuum cleaning systems.

We are also providing a certificate attesting the value of volume resistivity - measured by a certified laboratory in compliance with the UNI ISO 1853:2011 standard, which fixes the applicable testing methods and all the procedures to carry out these measurements on elastomer materials.

Any extra tests and measurements not specified in the data sheet will be charged to the customer.

The results obtained refer exclusively to the sample tested and it cannot be guaranteed that the same results can be reproduced in other laboratories under different test sample preparation and evaluation conditions.

We also wish to point out that our company, Progetto Gomma s.r.l., is under no obligation either to make other certificates available for reference or to provide declarations of conformity with the Community Directive 94/9/EC (ATEX) in order to sell the above-mentioned accessories.

Therefore, it is the manufacturer's responsibility, during the certification procedures for its equipment, to judge the suitability or non-suitability of such accessories, according to the requirements of the above-mentioned directive, and assuming full responsibility for their installation on its equipment.

Hold harmless clause:

Except as indisputably provided by law, the Seller accepts no responsibility for any direct and indirect damages to people and/or property that may arise from the use, and even improper use, of the products by a recipient, whether it is the Customer or a third party.

All of the above without any prejudice to the Seller's responsibility in case of events attributable to same through intent or gross negligence.

The Seller shall not be in any way responsible for the use of its products made by the recipient, nor for any damage directly or indirectly attributable to the use of the products.

Yours sincerely,

- Realizzazioni su disegno e specifica del cliente con ogni tipo di elastomero.
- Produzione articoli tecnici in gomma per ogni applicazione.
